

THE ATLANTA DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY

POSITION OPENING FOR STAFF COUNSEL

The Staff Counsel will be a key part of the legal team of The Atlanta Development Authority (the "ADA"), reporting to the General Counsel. This is a new position with the "go-to" economic development agency of the City of Atlanta. This person will play a significant role in the continued success of the implementation of the programs, vision and mission of the ADA (www.atlantada.com).

The successful candidate will have a strong background and experience in drafting and negotiating contracts, commercial and real estate transactions, corporate law and laws affecting governments/governmental authorities and representation of governments/governmental authorities. Additionally, the ideal candidate will have experience with or working knowledge of the Development Authorities Law, the Downtown Development Authorities Law, the Urban Residential Finance Authorities Act for Large Municipalities and municipal finance, having representation experience as issuer's counsel, bond counsel, underwriter's counsel or disclosure counsel.

The Staff Counsel position requires a J.D. degree and the successful candidate must be a current member in good standing of the State Bar of Georgia. The ideal candidate has at least five (5) to seven (7) years' experience as a practicing attorney in the areas mentioned above. In addition to those areas, having experience in construction law, employment law, government procurement law and litigation is a plus.

Interested candidates must should a resume and cover letter to jobs@atlantada.com.
